President's Message by Randy Dymond

It has been a busy and exciting four months as your Chapter's new president. The scope of our mission has been clearly demonstrated by our compassion and support for those in need, from the Coast Guard folks impacted by the partial government shutdown to Myrtle Beach High School's NJROTC Drill Team needing financial help to attend a national competition. In both instances, our Chapter stepped up and answered the call.

Another mission focus was highlighted during our April Dinner Meeting when we recognized and honored the commissioning cadets from Coastal Carolina's AROTC Program and bestowed the MOAA Leadership Award to a deserving junior and the first Robert T. Hawkins Leadership Award to an outstanding senior cadet. During our March and April Dinner Meetings we were graced by our own Chapter members, LTG (Ret) Mike Davison and COL (Ret) Jerry Crews, who shared personal experiences and lessons learned during their storied military careers.

We are all now gearing up for the busy month of May when Military Appreciation Days will take center stage along the Grand Strand and we will, among other things, have our annual golf tournament and participate in the Memorial Parade on Market Common. But, let's not forget that we also honor our JROTC Scholarship winners during our May Dinner Meeting, so be sure to attend that event to support our youth.

Grand Strand Members Offer Sage Advice

Our Chapter dinner meeting programs in March and April offered our members the opportunity to get a glimpse of the great talent and experience that exists within our ranks.

First our own LTG Michael Davison (USA, Ret) spoke to us in March offered inspiring guidance on how to handle the memories of the past while living in the present. Calling on his experience in Vietnam as an infantry company commander, LTG Davison described his own challenges dealing with the loss of young men in battle. Referring to the memories of Corporal Jimmy Castaldi and Sergeant Bill Port, he urged chapter members to remember those lost in combat, to memorialize them and do so while living in the present.

In our April meeting we recognized four graduating Coastal Carolina University ROTC cadets who will be commissioned and enter active duty this summer. Our own Colonel Jerry Crews (USA, Ret) offered them bits of wisdom learned through his 30 years of service.

In entertaining, freewheeling remarks, Col. Crews told the cadets to always show up on time, wear the correct uniform, keep a clear head, stay physically fit, and always be enthusiastic about their service and the tasks assigned to them.

Having the opportunity to listen to two of our own members address our dinner meeting was a reminder of the depth of experience and achievement represented in the ranks of our membership. Each and every member has a story of accomplishment. LTG Davison and Col Crews told their stories with passion, emotion, humor, and dignity. Thank you both for your contributions to our chapter.

In Memoriam

We sadly report the passing of Peggy Pilcher, 81, wife of past president Roger Pilcher. In addition to celebrating 44 years as the wife of a Marine Corps officer, Peggy was a mother to two children, Debbie and William. She also pursued a distinguished, award-winning career in the hospitality industry, including 25 years in management with Holiday Inn. May she rest in peace.

CCU Cadet Isabel Hearn Receives First Colonel Robert T. Hawkins Award

Coastal Carolina University senior Cadet Isabel Hearn received the first ever Colonel Robert T. Hawkins Award presented by President Randy Dymond at the April dinner meeting. Cadet Hearn was cited for her extraordinary extracurricular activities, her academic achievement, and her exemplary high personal standards. The Chapter Selection Committee was most impressed with her intellect, composure, and self-confidence. In May, Cadet Hearn will receive her Bachelor of Science degree in Biology and be commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the US Army Corps of Engineers branch. She is the daughter of Lieutenant Colonel (Ret) Brent Hearn and Captain (USN, Ret) Sandra Hearn of Virginia Beach, VA.

Four CCU Cadets Recognized

Senior CCU cadets being commissioned upon graduation in May were recognized and presented with rank insignia at the April Chapter meeting. Cadet Kyle Cannon, from Freehold, NJ, will receive his degree in Intelligence and National Security Studies and be commissioned in the US Army Armor Branch. As mentioned above Cadet Isabel Ahearn will receive her degree in Biology and be commissioned in the US Army Corps of Engineers Branch. Cadet Shebbena McGrew of Georgetown, Guyana, will receive her commission in Biology and be commissioned in the US Army Signal Corps. Cadet Destiny Trouilliere from New Orleans, Louisiana will receive her degree in Intelligence and National Security Studies and be commissioned in the US Army Military Intelligence Branch. Congratulations, Cadets, and good luck in your careers.

MOAA Leadership Award To CCU Cadet Matthew Broomfield

The Grand Strand MOAA Chapter presented its annual MOAA Leadership Award to CCU junior cadet Matthew Broomfield. Matthew is from Concord, North Carolina and is majoring in Intelligence and National Security Studies. He has made the Dean's List twice in his time at CCU and is on track to be commissioned in 2020. Previously, he has served in the South Carolina National Guard.

Chaplain's Corner by Greg Hill

Chag Pesach samekh (Happy Passover)! Passover is a Jewish holiday that celebrates the Israelites being freed from slavery in Egypt. It is observed for seven or eight days. During the first two nights, a Passover Seder is celebrated around a dinner table. This year Passover begins the evening of April 19 and ends the evening of April 27.

Happy Easter! Easter is a Christian holiday celebrating the resurrection of Jesus from the dead on the third day of his burial after his crucifixion by the Romans at Calvary.

This year Easter is observed on April 21.

Spring is a time of new beginnings. It is a freeing movement from winter to summer. The trees and flowers bloom bringing color and new life!

The MOAA Foundation Community Outreach Grant dollars have been totally expended to assist Veterans through the Low Country Veterans Group and the Eastern Carolina Homelessness Organization (ECHO).

The Homes for Heroes grant assisted two Georgetown Veterans with significant home repairs.

We should be grateful for these and other opportunities to significantly improve the lives of Veterans in Georgetown and Horry counties.

May is Military Appreciation Month

2019 promises to be one of the biggest and best Military Appreciation Days since the tribute month was initiated in Myrtle Beach in 2008. Main events (to include the parade, displays, exhibits, and family picnic) will take place on the Market Common again this year; and, those main events will be on May 25th (Memorial Day weekend again), this year. Other events also part of the month long observance begin on May 4 with the Horry County JROTC drill team competition. You can view the full schedule of events on page 2 in the "Mark Your Calendar" column. For additional details go to the Military Appreciation Days website at www.militaryappreciationdays.com, or contact Chapter Military Appreciation Committee member, Jerry Terwilliger by phone at 843.903.4047 or by email at gerald.terwilliger@gmail.com.

Keni Thomas, decorated U.S. Army Veteran-turned country musician, will serve as the Grand Marshal of the 2019 Military Appreciation Days Parade at The Market Common. Mr. Thomas is a graduate of the University of Florida and the recipient of the Bronze Star for Valor. He and fellow Army Rangers distinguished themselves in an 18-hour firefight in Somalia that would later be recounted in the book and movie, Black Hawk Down.
